

MASTERS WEEKEND

14-18th May 2025

Annabelle Hotel, Paphos, Cyprus

Worshipful Company
of Builders' Merchants

Nestled along the picturesque southwest coast of Cyprus lies Paphos, a captivating coastal city steeped in history, culture and natural splendour.

Revered as the birthplace of Aphrodite, the Greek goddess of love, Paphos seamlessly marries ancient ruins with breath taking landscapes and a dynamic modern cityscape. Whether you're drawn to its historical allure, its sun-kissed beaches, or the thrill of adventure, Paphos promises an enchanting experience for all.

From its UNESCO World Heritage sites to the mesmerising hues of its sunsets, Paphos beckons as a treasure trove of marvels waiting to be explored. Its cosy bars and restaurants, nestled within the city's heart, offer a warm embrace to visitors of all ages, fostering connections and partnerships for members of the Worshipful Company of Builder's Merchants amidst the city's vibrant ambiance.
